

RESTAURANT WEEK SOUTH AFRICA 2013:

100 TOP RESTAURANTS PARTICIPATING!

Diners will be pleased to hear that there are 100 top restaurants across South Africa to choose from during Restaurant Week South Africa 2013! Restaurants include Planet at the Mount Nelson Hotel, Bosman's, Buitenverwachting, Catharina's, Bread & Wine at Le Quartier Français, Hartford House, Geet, Raphael's, Bistro Sixteen82, Reuben's, Café 1999, Grande Provence and many more. With the official start for bookings in sight -on 7 October, 20.00hrs sharp-, tension is rising: will I be able to get my hands on one of those sought-after seats?

Restaurant Week South Africa 2013 takes place from 24 October until 3 November. The concept is simple: guests can enjoy a 2-course lunch for only R95 or a 3-course dinner for only R175, both created by the chefs and exclusively for Restaurant Week. Restaurants with a DiningCity ★ charge an additional R50. Guests will have to make their booking via the online booking system on www.restaurantweek.co.za, which will open on 7 October, 20.00hrs sharp. The number of seats is limited, so one has to be fast to make a decision.

The concept is the brainchild of the world's leading online restaurant guide DiningCity.com. Founded in 1998 in Amsterdam, the Netherlands, the event is currently also taking place in Belgium, Austria, Hungary, Italy and Spain and in cities like New York, Singapore, Dubai, Shanghai and Beijing.

The timing of Restaurant Week South Africa 2013 is particularly good with South Africans just venturing out of hibernation. Restaurant Week is about a high quality dining experience at a great price, while at the same time adding something very celebratory to one culinary week. It really is an event for the whole nation.
